NEWS FROM THE METROPOLIS.

As to Tweed's Arrest.

By American Press Association to the STAR.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The news of the arrest of Tweed at Vega, Spain, on board a Spanish merchant vessel, the Carmen, while he was traveling under the assumed name of Sober, caused great surprise here, and was not credited by the majority of citizens. Tweed's old friends counted it most of all. S. M. declared they had information lately that he was in London, others that he was in Edinburgh with three American friends. Some had word that he was short of money and had become tired of wandering. Arab-like, over the world.

P. is understood to have borrowed $2,000,000 of Ingersoll before he left America. The Spanish Consul doubted the story of the arrest. Deputy Sheriff Cunningham, an old and intimate friend of Tweed, placed no confidence in it. He said Tweed is still in the United States. Rumors were also current that the arrest had been brought about by Governor Tilden, who has caused Sheriff Connor to squeal on Tweed's hiding place.

The New Jersey Central Railroad is to make a new put of $5,000,000 of bonds, being the third mortgage on the road.

Vanderbilt was easier last night, and rather improved.

The Cuban Patriots.

News has been received here that the Cuban patriots have sacked Los Minos and pillaged the city without opposition from the Spanish garrison, when they fled at their approach.

Col. Shattuc for Low Rates.

At the Convention of General Ticket Agents held yesterday in the St. Nicholas Hotel the following resolution, introduced by W. B. Shattuc, of the A. & G. W. Railroad, was referred to a committee, who are to report to the Convention:

"Whereas, The past has demonstrated that the rates on Centennial tickets are too high, therefore,

"Resolved, That the rates on Centennial tickets be reduced one full fare from New York and return; and to Philadelphia and return the rate shall be $1 less than to New York and return from Detroit, Toledo, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus or Cincinnati, or West and South, therefore,

"Resolved, That no line shall be permitted to sell round trip Centennial tickets unless they participate in the reduction on a basis of one full fare for the round trip."

FROM THE POLITICAL WORLD.

Mr. Tilden Will Explain.

By American Press Association to the STAR.

THE LATE RIFES.

An Impartial Account of the Affairs.

American Press Association to the STAR.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 9.—The accounts telegraphed from this city concerning the late disturbances have been more or less partial in character. The following is given as an accurate report of the occurrences: On the night of Wednesday, the 6th inst., a colored Democratic meeting adjourned, and a few white men present offered their services as an escort to protect the colored speakers, who had been threatened by some of the colored Republicans on account of their alleged desertion of their race.

While on route to the houses of the colored orators the guard, consisting of about fifteen white men, marching in a hollow square with the blacks in the center, was met by an angry and infuriated mob of blacks, who began abusing them. Finally a white man was knocked down. Pistol shots and brickbats were then fired by the mob upon the escort, who, preserving good order and protecting their colored friends, sought refuge in the arsenal and placed their wards in charge of the United States troops, who garrisoned the post.

The mob then began an attack upon the whites. The police, under Chief Hendricks, went to the rescue and succeeded, with great difficulty, in escorting the whites to a Station-house where they were protected. Main street was in possession of the mob for several hours, and men could not cross it without peril. On Thursday night, the 7th inst., all the military clubs were under arms, and the streets were patrolled by police and mounted men all night.

About 9 P. M. a band of negroes fired a volley into the windows of Burns Hall, on King street, where a white rifle club was assembled under orders. The volley was returned by the whites, with what results are unknown; but one death is thus far reported. Buckner, a white man, was shot Wednesday evening.

Settling the Indian Question.

Fort Smith, Ark., Sept. 9.—Yesterday was the scene of another execution in the Court-yard of the United States District Court of this place, by which four Indians, Osee Sanders, a Cherokee; Sinker Wilson, a Cherokee; Sam. Peters, a Cherokee; and Jack Valley, a Florida Indian, paid the penalty of their crime, which were committed in the Indian Territory.

The Independent of this place says this execution closes the life of fifteen who have been executed within a year by the sentence of the same court, on the same spot, and on the same gallows. Six on the 31st day of September, 1875, five on the 21st day of April, 1876, and four today, nine having suffered the extreme penalty of the law in less than five months.

More Jewelry Theives.

This morning about 9 o'clock, "Billy Hill," alias Somers, alias Brooks, a thief who was just let out of the Ninth-street Station-house last night, where Detectives Mead and Murray had confined him on suspicion of being a thief, went into Ockamp's jewelry store on Vine street, accompanied by a woman named Williamson, an accomplice, and while looking at some trinkets managed to "pinch" a $50 chain.

On being detected by the salesman, the party ran out of the store and made their way to the Gibson House, the woman going upstairs, where she threw the chain away.

They were both arrested by Officers Ritter and Stewart, and confined in the Ninth-street Station-house on the charge of grand larceny.

Important Arrests.

Joe Butts, alias "J. F. Adams," Thos. Warner, alias "Little Joe," and Joseph Simpson, alias "Simms," three of the most notorious thieves in America, have at last come to grief through the persevering efforts of Detectives Steve Mead and John Murray. Since their arrest they have been identified as pals of Sam. Morton, alias "Sam. Perry," alias "Plantagenet," with whom they victimized the Western German Bank, corner of Twelfth and Vine, out of $2,380 on the 20th of April last.

Three weeks ago they got $350 by a drop game at the Lafayette Bank. These same chaps are wanted in St. Louis for a similar offense committed two weeks ago, at which time they got away with $1,800; the St. Louis authorities are here to-day with papers for their arrest, fearful that a case could not be made out against them here.

In Indianapolis they are wanted on a $5,000 steal. This morning they were heard in the Police Court on the charge preferred by the Western German Bank, and were held over to the Common Pleas in the sum of $4,000 each.

The detectives played a shrewd game on the thieves by taking the witness in the Hennekamp case before the Grand Jury yesterday, where an indictment was found; so if they missed fire in the Police Court and the thieves were not held over on that charge they would have them foul on the other. Too much credit can not be accorded the above named officers for their efforts in ridding society of the worst criminals of the age.

NO PRIZE-FIGHT AT ALL!

Eph. Holland Makes a Statement.

The Police Commissioners After Mark Burns and Sam. Cooper.

Allen Denies Holland's Statement.

Yesterday evening the pugilist issued the following card:

"COVINGTON, September 8.

"To the Public:

"Mr. Joe Goss, as champion of England, came to this country a few months since and stated to the public that his express purpose in coming to America was to whip me, I being recognized as champion of America. My intention was to fight honestly and squarely. I did it. Mr. Goss I whipped easily. He was fearfully beaten, and I scarcely received a scratch. I desired a fair, honest fight. This I did not get. When Mr. Eph. Holland was chosen referee, he announced to the crowd around the ring that he would see that the best man won. This he failed to do. I was satisfied after a few minutes' fighting that no matter how badly I whipped Mr. Goss, I would not be allowed to win the fight. In the twentieth round, when Mr. Goss was blind and hardly able to stagger to the scratch, a person from New York offered to bet $1,000 against $500 that Goss would win. I think that I had him whipped, but I had no earthly chance to get the stakes. I think that the spectators will agree with me that I won the fight."

"It seems to me that I am unable to get fair play in this country, and I now say that I will never again enter the ring as a principal or second, or in any other manner."

Col. Eph. Holland in discussing the points made by Tom in the above card, said last night to a reporter that neither Goss nor Allen had a cent up on the fight. That all the money that was staked was put up by him, and that all the money for fighting for was the excursion money. "It was understood that if Allen could not win in a short time, that he would end the fight by striking a foul, and without that understanding, and with me as referee, Allen would not have gone into the ring at all."

And in reference to that $1,000 "side bet" in the ring, that too was Holland's money, according to his own statement. But how can the above statements be reconciled with the fact that Allen sent for Mr. H. Clay White, the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Kenton County, and made affidavit to his petition before the Court of Common Pleas of Hamilton County, Ohio, against Eph. Holland and Blaney Edwards, the stakeholders of the fight, who have $2,9
